

G. COMPOSITION

DESCRIPTIVE

a Describe the atmosphere of a busy airport, referring to particular people and situations that you observe.

To create atmosphere, you need to refer to the following:

- what can be seen and its effect
- what can be heard and its effect
- how it makes the observer feel.

b Describe, in role, an hour in the day of a flight attendant, including your thoughts and feelings during that time.

Answer the following questions:

- What tense will you use?
- Where you will be during that hour?
- Will you write an account of a typical hour or describe an atypical event?

NARRATIVE

c Write a story that involves a farewell scene.

- Who are the characters?
- When, where and why are they saying goodbye?
- How can the ending be made unpredictable or ironic?

d 'An unforgettable plane journey'. Write a story with this title.

- In what way was it unforgettable?
- At what point in the journey will the narrative start?
- What will the last sentence be?

Write about 350 to 450 words on one of the following questions.

Up to 16 marks are available for the content and structure of your answer, and up to 24 marks for the style and accuracy of your writing.
